THE MARQUARDTS CHARM AUDIENCE Craik

Small Number of People Enjoy Splendid Music of Artists and Local Assistants.

Owing probably to the many attractions going on last night, and in part, perhaps, to the fact that most people were tired out after the day's holiday making, there was not the audience at the Marquardt concert that the program and its rendition deserved.

The Marquardts are not unknown to Honolulu, and a selectio nof a more timely date would undoubtedly have brought out a full house.

The audience, though small, was entirely appreciative, seeming to thoroughly enjoy every number.
